The office of Lay Ministry Formation and Leadership is offering a Diocesan-wide Bible Study given by the University of Dallas. This is a Catholic Biblical School Course that will run from September through May and will be held at several sites spread throughout the diocese (based on interest and geography). If you think you may be interested, please pick up a pamphlet and a "Yes, I am very interested!" form which are in the foyer. There must be at least 30 participants for this program to take place so if you are at all interested, please fill out the form and submit as soon as possible. Applications are also available at <http://renodiocese.org/catholic-biblical-school>

DID YOU FILL OUT ONE OF OUR CENSUS CARDS?

If not, please help us update our registry to insure a more accurate account of the number of families and update contact information. If you did not fill one out at the end of the year, please do so the weekend of March 11 or 12. Or ask the office for a card. Thank you!

¿HA COMPLETADO UNA DE NUESTRAS TARJETAS DE CENSO?

Si no, por favor ayúdenos a actualizar nuestro registro para asegurar una cuenta más precisa del número de familias y actualizar la información de contacto. Si no llenas uno al final del año, por favor hazlo el fin de semana del 11 o 12 de marzo. O pide a la oficina una tarjeta. ¡Gracias!

Lent begins March 1

Here is a friendly reminder about fasting
On Ash Wednesday and Good Friday: healthy adults (including teens) are to eat ONE full meal only, and no meat. No snacking, and other meals need to be small.

On Fridays of Lent, no meat is to be eaten. Remember the spirit of this, don't replace your steak dinner with a lobster dinner, rather, go simple.

All through Lent, is to be a time of prayer, fasting and penitence. So make sure these are incorporated into your practices.

The more one puts into this, the more one gets out of it!
